Merry Christmas

Cleveland
1959

Dear Ey -

Throughout this year of strain and stress, you have stood steadfast in your high principles of public service and ready to pull more than your share of the load. For all of this, I am truly grateful.

As we face some difficult days ahead - difficult because the task itself is a tough one and difficult because others will help to make it that way - without malice but in the very nature of our way of doing things; I know I can count on the same fine support and initiative from you.

To you and Mrs Abbott and the family - my very best wishes for a happy holiday season

Sincerely
Seitz
