In the Name of God. Amen. I, Thomas Cokee, being sick, and having a perfect mind of memory to make my last will and testament,

First, I give to my Loving Wife, one half of the plantation and house during her natural life.

Then, I give to my second Loving Wife, two Negroes, one female and one male, during her natural life.

Peter Sampson, Philip and Enoch, during their natural life.

To my daughter Elizabeth, and my son Samuel, the said negroes, with their issue, to be equally divided among my surviving children.

To my son the remaining part of my Negroes, except those hereinafter reserved.

The rest and residue of all the Negroes of York to be equally divided between my children, without distinction.

To my daughter Elizabeth, to have the use of the house and land, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my son Samuel, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.

To my son, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until his marriage, to be conveyed to his wife, and the land to be conveyed to her, and the house to be conveyed to her husband.

To my daughter, to have the use of the land and house, and to remain in the same until her marriage, to be conveyed to her husband, and the land to be conveyed to him, and the house to be conveyed to her.
of Eighteen Years, not disturbing the mother in the possession of the one half before given her during her natural life to him the Matriarch of this body, and for want of such hours then to my son George Gower to the Male heirs of my body. And for want of such heirs then to the Female heirs of my son Thomas R.
of such heirs then to the Female heirs of my son George.
For want of such heirs to the Male heirs of my body. And for want of such heirs then to my daughter Elizabeth. And for want of such heirs to the heirs of her body. And for want of such heirs.
And for want of the heirs of the said lands to my nephew James of my children. I give the said lands to my son James, my nephew. And his heirs, he passing to my nephew Matthew Apalcase. And he passing to my nephew Matthew.

For want of my loving brother James Apalcase, my loving wife Margaret, she having this my last will. I will not order to hand at my head of Sale. This 3rd day of Nov. 1729.
