KESTRAL AIRCRAFT USED AT LANGLEY RESEARCH CENTER

XS-689: NASA-521 received July 23, 1966 flown for 134 hr. 14 min. on 210 research flights. Delivered to National Air and Space Museum June 20, 1974. Used for V/STOL terminal area research (66-69) and then vectoring in forward flight (VIFF) research (70-74).

XS-694: Original NASA-520 received July 23, 1966 flown 9 hr. 50 min. on 18 research flights. Damaged beyond repair during landing accident at Wallops Flight Center on August 21, 1967. Used for V/STOL terminal area research.
