HARWOOD FAMILY TREE
HARWOOD FAMILY OF VIRGINIA

This William Harwood, married Elizabeth -; they lived in Thurlby, Lincolnshire, England. (Ref. "Three Hundred & Fifty Years of Harwoods" by C. A. Farley, pg 7)

They had known issue: (1) Sir Edward Harwood a knight who on Dec. 2, 1617 received four (4) shares in the Virginia Company. (2) and George Harwood. (NOTE: Mrs. Nancy Harwood Garrett of 2712 Sterling Point Drive, Portsmouth, Virginia 23703 has sent the data on the Harwood family, however Mrs. Garrett wishes other data. Continued below A2662.)

HARWOOD·RICHARDS·YOUNG

Wishing data and full information on the family of General Henry Young. It has been understood that Gen. Young was quartermaster General of Virginia under General George Washington. The sister of Gen. Young was named Millicent Young and she married Richards and their daughter Millicene/Richards married Warner Harwood who died in 1808; she died in 1834. One Henry Young was administrator of Warner Harwood's estate. How would I go about locating birth and death dates on Gen. Henry and Millicent Young. I have tried Swem's Index, but can find no listings of Millicent Young or Millicene Richards. I have read that Richard Henry Harwood (1802-1872) (son of Warner Harwood) was reared by Gen. Henry Young and was made his heir. Since I am tracing the Harwoods, I am eager to tie this connection with the Harwood line. I am enclosing a copy of the research I have done on the Harwoods, so far in hopes that it may be of help to some of your readers. (Nancy Harwood Garrett - address given above).

HARWOOD FAMILY CO. (Greenbrier, West Virginia)

Nancy Harwood Garrett advises that she descends from George Harwood, brother of Sir Edward Harwood.

George Harwood married Catherine Phesant of Dublin, Ireland. He entered his pedigree in London, England in 1634 and lived in Warwick County, Virginia in 1661 (Ref: Henings Statutes at Large, Vol. 2, pg. 156; and Three Hundred and Fifty Years of Harwoods by C. A. Farley, pg 7)

Issue: John Harwood, Joshua Harwood, George Harwood, William Harwood, and Thomas Harwood; of these we follow William Harwood.

They had known issue: (1) Sir Edward Harwood a knight who on Dec. 2, 1617 received four (4) shares in the Virginia Company. (2) and George Harwood. (NOTE: Mrs. Nancy Harwood Garrett of 2712 Sterling Point Drive, Portsmouth, Virginia 23703 has sent the data on the Harwood family, however Mrs. Garrett wishes other data. Continued below A2662.)
William Harwood — married Elinor —. He came to the Virginia Colony in 1620 and was Chief of Martins Hundred in Feb. 1623. In 1627 he was appointed a Burgess for the Assembly. In 1638 he was granted 200 acres of land in Charles City County, Va. and in October 1642 he was granted 780 acres more. His wife Elinor — came to Virginia in 1634, but remained in America for only a short duration. (Ref: Adventures of Purse and Person by A.L. Jester, pp. 43 and 205; Records of the Virginia Company, pg. 495; Hereward Records and Papers, pp. 8 & 9. Issue: Joseph Harwood, Nicolas Harwood and Samuel Harwood of these we follow Joseph, Joseph Harwood (1640-1680), married —. On Oct. 30, 1665 he was granted 422 acres of land on the north side of the James River. This land was known as Weynoke. This tract passed from the Harwood family to the Lewis family when Agnes Harwood married Fielding Lewis. (Ref: Hereward Records &

Joseph Harwood (1685-abt. 1745); married Agnes Cocke who was born abt. 1672. Her mother was Margaret Powell and her father was Thomas Cocke. Joseph Harwood was a Justice for Charles City County in 1705 and a Burgess in 1710. He received land from the Virginia Colony in 1706 on the Nottoway River and in June 16, 1714 was granted 445 acres in Isle of Wight County, Va. (Ref: Hereward Records & Papers, p. 409; Calendar of Va. State Papers, Vol. 1, p. 196, Va. Historical Mag., Vol. 18, pp. 492-3, Vol. 22, p. 415; Virginia Genealogist, Vol. 11, p. 46, Calendar of State Papers, Vol. 1, p. 142; Three Hundred and Fifty Years of Harwoods, by Farley, p. 9.) Issue: Thomas Joseph, Agnes and Samuel Harwood.

Samuel Harwood (1685-1737); married He was Burgess for Charles City Co., Va. 1720-23; was Sheriff of Charles City Co. 1730-37. He received land from the Virginia Colony in 1706 on the Nottoway River and in June 16, 1714 was granted 445 acres in Isle of Wight County, Va. (Ref: Hereward Records & Papers, p. 409; Calendar of Va. State Papers, Vol. 1, p. 196, Va. Historical Mag., Vol. 18, pp. 492-3, Vol. 22, p. 415; Virginia Genealogist, Vol. 11, p. 46, Calendar of State Papers, Vol. 1, p. 142; Three Hundred and Fifty Years of Harwoods, by Farley, p. 9.) Issue: Colonel William Harwood and Major Samuel Harwood.

Warner Harwood (—died 1808); married Milecenie Richard who died in 1834. Her mother was Millicent Young—.
Colonel Edward Harwood, Major Samuel Harwood, Major William Harwood and Warner Harwood. This line continues through Warner Harwood.

Warner Harwood (—died 1808); married Millicene Richard who died in 1834. Her mother was Millicent Young, sister of General Young, who was Quartermaster of Virginia under Gen. George Washington. Warner Harwood’s will was proved in Essex Co., Va. in 1809 with Henry Young as administrator. (Ref: Calendar of Va. State Papers, Vol. 5, p. 320; Virginia State Library (Archives) (Microfilm, Will book of Essex Co., Va. Will Bk. 17, pp. 118-119). This couple had issue: Warner Roane Harwood, John W. Harwood, Richard Henry Har-
Richard Henry Harwood (1802-1872); married Mary (Polly) Bagby (1803-1872). He bought Menokin in 1836 along with 1,106 acres of land. He was buried in Menokin Baptist Church along with his wife and most of his children. The parents of his wife were Richard Bagby Susanna Jefferies. (Ref: Hereward Records and Papers, p. 389; Virginia State Library microfilm, Executor of his mother Millicene Richards Harwood’s estate; Three Hundred Fifty Years of Harwoods by Farley, p. 37; A Genealogical & Historical Account of the Harwoods, Henrys and Dotsons (1902) by J.B. Harwood, pp. 52-53.) This couple had issue: William Franklin Harwood, Mary Frances Harwood, Louisa R. Harwood, Elizabeth Harwood, Millicene R. Harwood, and John Baylor Harwood. This line follows through William Franklin Harwood.

William Franklin Harwood (1831-1893); married Virginia Stubblefield (1836-1890). He was in Company A, 13th Battalion (Oteley's Battery) Confederate States of America and was wounded on Sept. 1862. He was in the lumber and hardware business in Richmond and his home was one in the first block restored by the Historical Society on Church Hill in Richmond, Va. His wife was the daughter of Colonel John Stubblefield and Polly Eppes Harwood. (Ref: State Archives of C.S.A. Records; Three Hundred Fifty Years of Harwoods, p. 38; A Genealogical & Historical Account of the Harwoods, Henrys, and Dotsons (1902) by J.B. Harwood, p. 21; Microfilm of CSA records — Virginia State Archives.) The couple had issue: Henry Harwood, John Stubblefield Harwood, and Mary Ottlene Harwood. This line follows through John Stubblefield Harwood.

John Stubblefield Harwood (1859-1913); married Charlotte Woodruff Tyler (1861-1826). Col. John Stubblefield Harwood was in the House of Delegates from Richmond, Va. for years 1909-1911, in the Virginia State Senate from 1913-1911. Harwood was Chief of Staff under Virginia Governors O'Ferrall and Montague. He was a thirty second degree Mason. He was running for the United States Congress when his health failed. His wife was the daughter of William Henry Tyler and Marietta Jane Dennis and of the line of President John Tyler. (Ref: Lyon G. Tyler (1915), Vol. —; —; Richmond, her past and Present (1912) by L.N. Jenkins, p.; —; Dau’s Blue Book (1912), p.; —; Grand Lodge of Virginia Ancient Free and Accepted Masons (1859), p. 224; Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, Year Book 1901, p. 83; Three Hundred and Fifty Years of Harwoods, p. 38; A Genealogical & Historical Account of Harwoods, Henrys, and Dotsons (1902) by J.B. Harwood, p. 67; Hereward Records and Papers, p. —.
(1912) by L.N. Jenkins, p.—; Dau's Blue Book (1912), p.—; Grand Lodge of Virginia Ancient Free and Accepted Masons (1889), p. 224; Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, Year Book 1901, p. 85; Three Hundred and Fifty Years of Harwood, by Farley, p. 38; A Genealogical and Historical Account of Harwoods, Henrys, and Dotsdens (1902) by J. B. Harwood, p. 67; Hereward Records and Papers, p. 389.) They had issue: John Stubblefield Harwood, Jr., and two infants who died early. Among issue had Richard Henry Harwood (1916).