Possible Sources for the land referred to as Chesterville (1809)

(1) Purchase, by Thomas Wythe (1) on 3/20/1691 of 204 acres from Ed. Sweeney. This land was formerly part of a patent of 500 acres granted to John Laydon on 10/3/1636. It is thought that it is the same land patented by John Hewett on 6/1/1640, and later sold to Humphry Lee and still later sold by his nephews John Lee and John Owen to Sweeney.

(2) Inheritance, by Mrs. Ann Smith Wythe, wife of Thomas Wythe (1) on the death of her first husband ______ Smith or her son William Smith on October 18, 1693.

(3) Inheritance, by marriage of Thomas Wythe (2) to Anne Shepard Gutherick, widow of Quintillian Gutherick. Will made 11/18/1689. (Also from John or Thomas Shepard)

(4) Inheritance, by Mrs. Margaret Walker Wythe, wife of Thomas Wythe (3) on the death of her father George Walker or mother Ann Keith Walker.

(5) Purchase, by Thomas Wythe (4), probably during the period between 1729, the date of his father will, and 1754, the date of his will, "the land of George Pickett and Francis.....". This land was left to George Wythe by his bro.

(6) Purchase, by George Wythe, during the period 1755-until he sold out to Hylard(?).

(7) Purchase, by Hylard(?), during the period of his ownership ending in 1800.

(8) Purchase, by George Wythe, in 1800 or 1801.

(9) Purchase, by Robert S. Hudgins (1), during period 1801-1809.
